WHAT YOUR SPONSORSHIP SUPPORTS

In its fifth decade of premier ballet instruction in the Ozarks, Springfield Ballet continues to grow in its important mission as a not-for-profit organization dedicated to bringing the art of ballet to our community and supporting underserved populations through its outreach and education initiatives, including

DANCE CHANCE

After-school dance instruction offered at no cost for students in local Title I elementary schools. More than 2500 students have benefited from these classes.

STAR STEPS

This is a special opportunity for Dance Chance students identified and nominated by their behavior and interest to continue their ballet education at Springfield Ballet. Ten students per session are supported with full scholarships in three 8-week sessions throughout the year.

CHILDREN'S WORKSHOPS SERIES

These low-cost instructional classes for boys and girls 3-8 years old in the community provide a well-rounded introduction to the art and movement of ballet through crafts, games, a reading of a ballet story and a special performance by a surprise guest.

SPECIAL PERFORMANCES FOR SPRINGFIELD SECOND GRADE STUDENTS

Since 1996, Springfield Ballet has transported and hosted free of charge second grade Springfield Public Schools students at a live, abridged performance of The Nutcracker or our spring production, connecting them to the art of ballet as part of the Kennedy Center's Any Given Child initiative. More than 50,000 students have been reached through this program.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Full and partial tuition scholarships, pointe shoe scholarships and work-study grants are given to more than 12% of Springfield Ballet's students each year to further their training and development.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP

We partner with several agencies in our community to serve a variety of populations. From adaptive dance classes for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, movement workshops for children surviving domestic violence, to ballet adaptations of children's books for our library district, and more, we bring the joy and benefits of ballet to these groups free of charge.

NEW SPACE NEEDS

As we celebrate 50 years of bringing the art of ballet to our community in order to continue our impact and meet demand we need to expand. Our enrollment has increased 20% in the last 10 years and our production casts have increased 30%. We need a space with a minimum of 17,350 sq. ft., an expansion from our current 4,686 sq. ft., with 20 ft. ceilings and adequate, safe parking. If you can support our expansion exploration with space or a donation, let's talk. Contact Executive Director Kyler Dibben at 417.862.1343 or kdibben@springfieldballet.org.
